Confirmation photo

Esther Christine Nelson
Confirmation – 1912
by Rev. Rydquist
First Swedish Evangelical Lutheran Church
Uppertown, Astoria, Oregon

In the 2nd Clerical Record of the church, Esther's confirmation is noted on the same page as the family roll. It appears that the family became members the same year as she was confirmed. Sally regretted that she was never confirmed because when it came time for her age group, the acting pastor was not qualified to do confirmations.

Cora Nelson married James "Jimmy" Ingleton in 1930
Daughter Rose Annette was born in December 1930.
This photo was taken on Thanksgiving 1948 when Rose was 17 years and 11 months old.

Rose married Glen Robeson in 1950. He was from Huron, South Dakota and they made their home in Huron. He was an optometrist and I think Rose helped him in the business. They had 4 sons
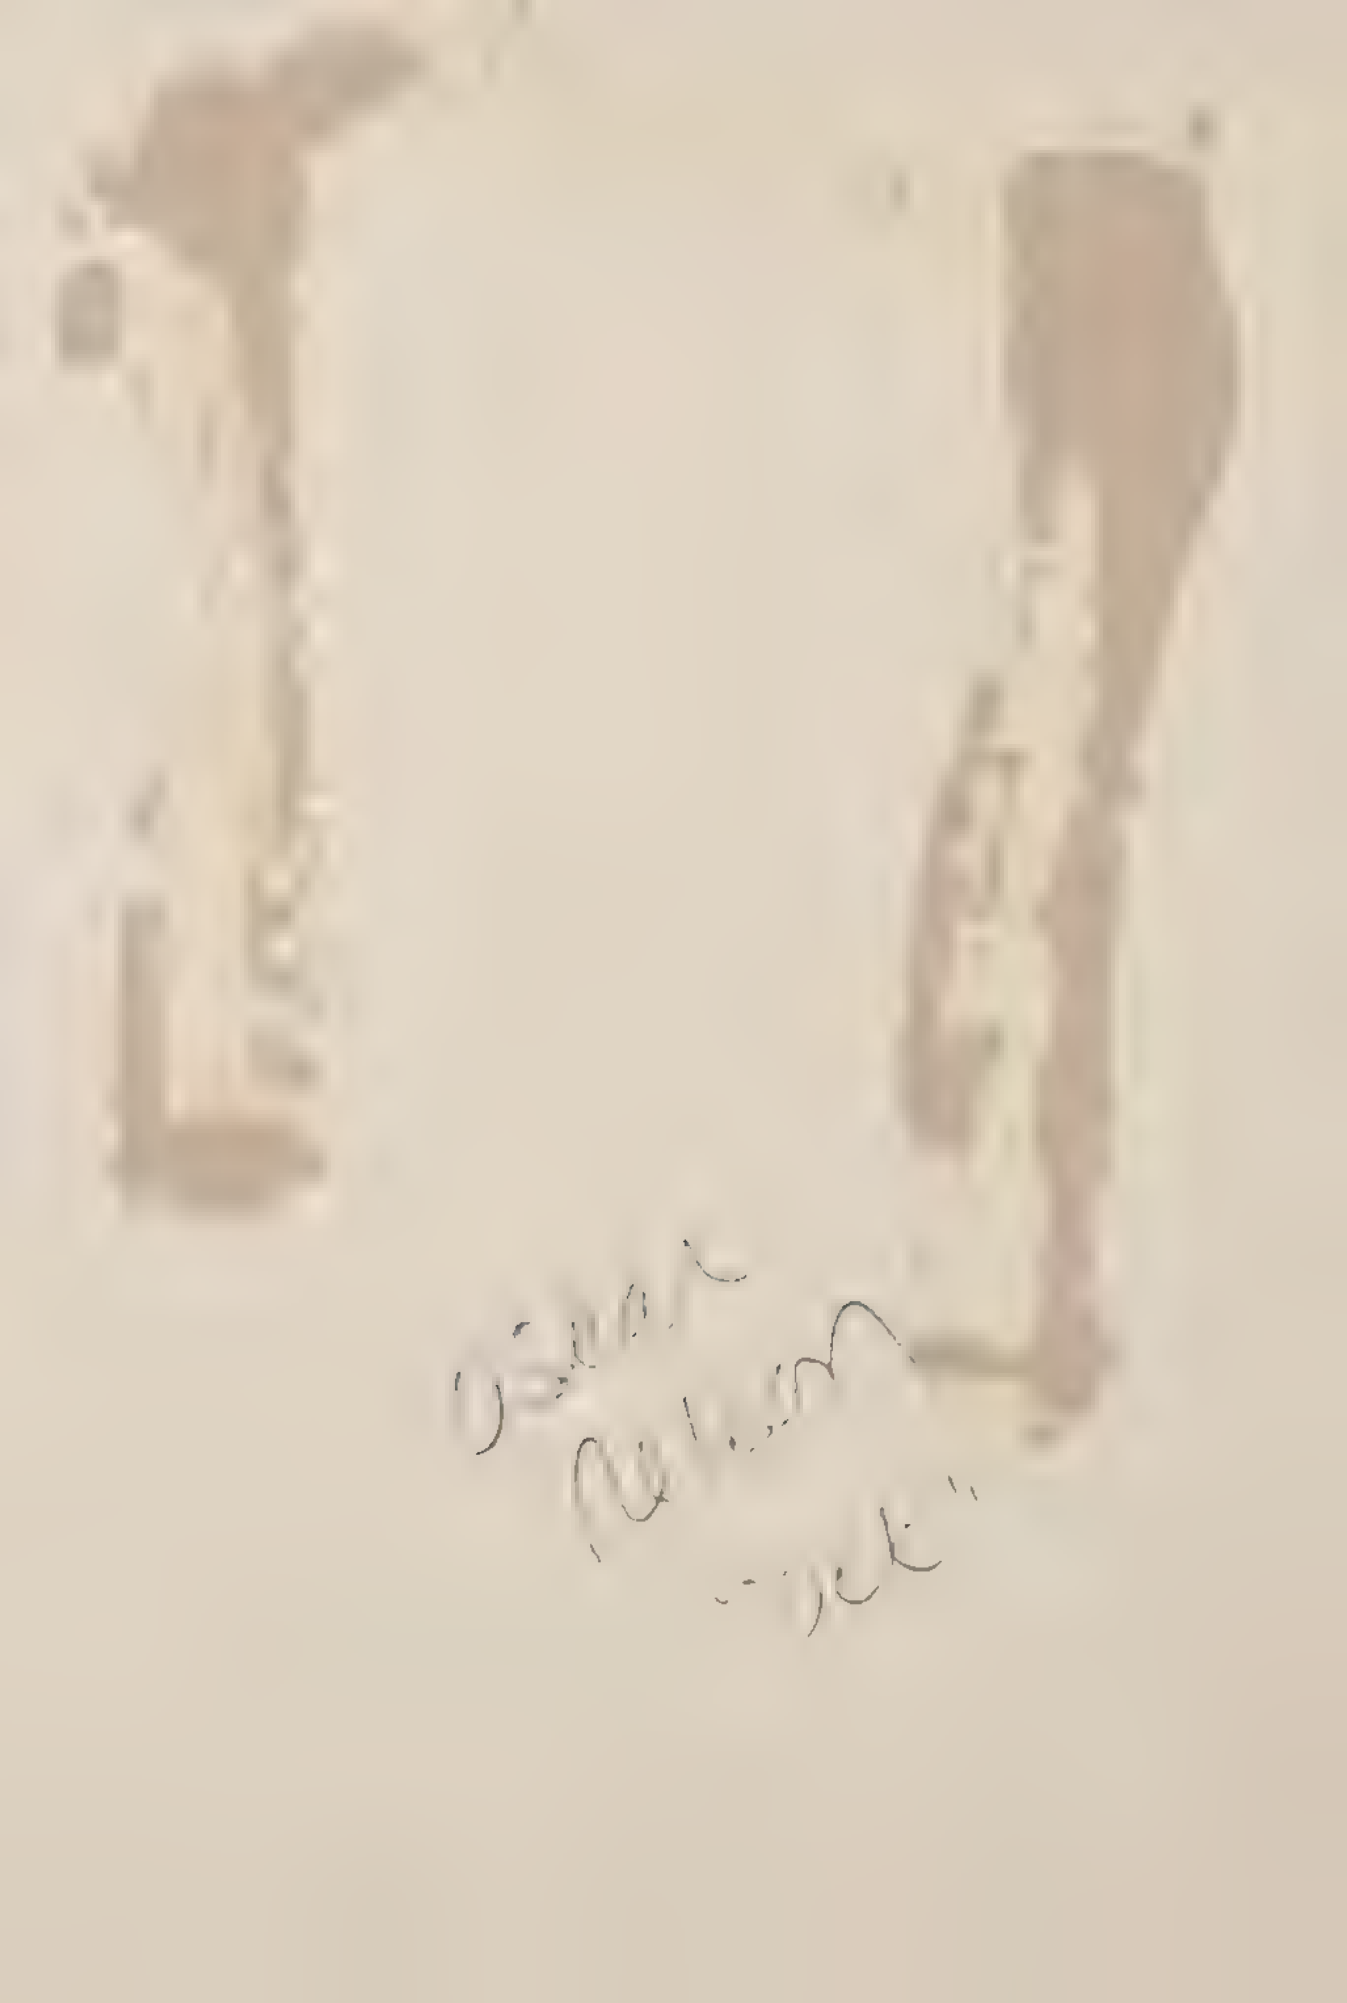
Rose died in 2011



Oscar Edwin "Ock" Nelson
Born 30 October 1896, Astoria, Oregon
Died 7 July 1971, Astoria, Oregon

This photo must have been taken when Oscar was serving in the army during WWI.
He enlisted at Vancouver Barracks, WA, 25 June 1917
Co D 44th Infantry to August 1918 and Co D 76th Infantry until discharge 24 February 1918
He moved ranks from Private to Corporal to Sergeant

The 1940 census lists him as an Optometrist. I'm not sure that Oscar was a full blown but he worked with an Optometrist, Dr. Harvey Rones and perhaps others.
His death certificate lists him as a lens grinder.

Esther C. McCroskey

March 24, 1895 - June 9, 1983

A lifetime North Coast resident, Esther C. McCroskey, 88, of Warrenton, died Thursday in the Astoria hospital.

The daughter of Otto and Ida C. Sjogren Nelson, she was born March 24, 1895, in Astoria. She received her education in the Astoria school system. As a young woman she had worked as a clerk at the BeeHive Department Store and Grant's Bakery. She had also done some domestic work. She moved to Warrenton in 1966 and had lived there since.

Mrs. McCroskey was a confirmed member of the Lutheran Church.

On July 12, 1939, she was married to Wallace L. "Dutch" McCroskey in Tillamook. He died in Astoria in 1966.

Surviving is a sister, Sally E. Morris, Astoria; two nieces, Mae Steele, Astoria, and Rose Robison, Huron, South Dakota; three nephews, Sidney Cordiner, Albany, Robert Cordiner, Astoria, and Roger Cordiner, Kent, Wash.; and a cousin, Ellen Brack, Astoria.

Memorial services will be held Monday at 10:30 a.m. at Hughes-Ransom Mortuary, Astoria. Contributions may be made to the Peace Lutheran Church Memorial Fund.

Sally E. Morris

Astoria native, 103

Sally E. Morris, 103, of Astoria, died Saturday, Jan. 10, 2004 in Astoria.

Mrs. Morris was born Feb. 19, 1900 in Astoria to Otto and Ida Nelson. She grew up in Astoria and attended the old Adair School. She married Syd Cordiner, who died in in 1960. Later, she married Paul Morris. He also died earlier.

Mrs. Morris was a homemaker and mother and lived independently until the last few months of her life. Family members say she enjoyed crocheting, gardening and working with her plants.

Survivors include three sons, Syd Cordiner Jr. of Albany, Bob Cordiner of Astoria and Roger Cordiner of Buckley, Wash.; seven grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

A private memorial will be followed by private interment at Greenwood Cemetery in Astoria. Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice.

Hughes-Ransom Mortuary and Crematory in Astoria is in charge of arrangements.

Ida Christina's brother,
NILS GUSTAF SJÖGREN & his wife, LAURA ELIZABETH STENFELDT with their daughters ANNA & EDNA LAURA VICTORIA.
They lived at Binnerbäck in Högby Parish, Öland.
Anna married Nils Erik Henry Nilsson and they remained at Binnerbäck.
